Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

January 2009

1. The Center for Terrorism Law continues to prepare for the fourth annual Terrorism Seminar 2009: Preparing Law Enforcement for Threats to National Security. This seminar will be held at St. Mary's University School of Law from 9-12 March 2009. See www.stmarytx.edu/ctl for details.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law continues to coordinate with the American Embassy Kuwait regarding the development of a university level (for academic credit) course at the American University Kuwait on legal and policy matters related to terrorism. The tentative date for the Kuwait based event is early 2009. Dr. Rawda Awwad, a professor at the American University of Kuwait, visited the Center for Terrorism Law on 12-13 December 2008 and met with Center for Terrorism Law research fellows and the Director to develop materials on the legal issues for the course.
3. The Center for Terrorism Law is coordinating a national symposium to be held 30 April – 1 May 2009 in Houston, Texas, to provide information on how to develop appropriate security methods and procedures to mitigate a business' potential legal liability in the event of acts of terrorism or crime. The symposium is entitled: Terrorism, Crime & Business: Understanding the Fundamental Legal and Security Liability Issues for American Business. See www.stmarytx.edu/ctl for additional details. The three keynote speakers are United States Congressman Mike McCaul, 10th District, Texas; Executive Director, Port of Houston; and distinguished attorney Martin D. Beirne. The topics covered include:
  - An overview of the aims and objectives of the global terror threat posed by al-Qaeda-styled terror groups, sub-state terror groups, and “lone wolf” terrorists.
  - An analysis of the specific threats to American business sectors that are deemed part of the nation's “critical infrastructure,” i.e. energy, petro-chemical, electric utilities, communication, transportation, health, etc.

- An understanding of the varied legal issues associated with terrorism and criminal negligence claims against businesses that have suffered a terror attack or serious criminal act in cyberspace or the physical world.
- A comprehensive review of how to develop appropriate security methods and procedures to mitigate business' potential legal liability.

4. The law review article entitled: The Protect America Act of 2007: A Framework for Improving Intelligence Collection in the War on Terror, by Professor Addicott and Congressman Michael McCaul (10th District, Texas) is forthcoming in the Fall 2008 edition of the University of Texas School of Law, The Texas Review of Law and Politics.
