Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

May 2009

1. Professor Addicott provided oral and written testimony before the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, Subcommittee on Administrative Oversight and the Courts hearing entitled: “What Went Wrong Torture and the Office of the Legal Counsel in the Bush Administration,” Washington, DC. Text can be viewed in entirety at: <http://jurist.law.pitt.edu/paperchase/2009/05/bush-era-interrogation-techniques.php>.

2. The Center for Terrorism Law conducted a national symposium from 30 April – 1 May 2009 in Houston, Texas, which provided information on how to develop appropriate security methods and procedures to mitigate a business’ potential legal liability in the event of acts of terrorism or crime. The symposium was entitled: Terrorism, Crime & Business: Understanding the Fundamental Legal and Security Liability Issues for American Business. The three keynote speakers were United States Congressman Mike McCaul, 10th District, Texas; Wade M. Battles, Interim Executive Director, Port of Houston; and distinguished attorney Martin D. Beirne. The topics covered included:

- An overview of the aims and objectives of the global terror threat posed by al-Qaeda-styled terror groups, sub-state terror groups, and “lone wolf” terrorists.
- An analysis of the specific threats to American business sectors that are deemed part of the nation’s “critical infrastructure,” i.e. energy, petro-chemical, electric utilities, communication, transportation, health, etc.
- An understanding of the varied legal issues associated with terrorism and criminal negligence claims against businesses that have suffered a terror attack or serious criminal act in cyberspace or the physical world.
- A comprehensive review of how to develop appropriate security methods and procedures to mitigate business’ potential legal liability.

3. The Center for Terrorism Law hosted Keith Stansell and Marc Gonsalves at a Distinguished Speaker Series event at St. Mary's University School of Law. The two Americans spoke on their horrific experiences after being held as hostages for more than five years in the Colombia jungles by the Marxist FARC. As a consequence of this event, the Center for Terrorism Law is planning to host a two-day conference in September regarding Narcoterrorism.

4. The Center for Terrorism Law continues to coordinate with the American Embassy Kuwait regarding the development of a university level (for academic credit) course at the American University Kuwait on legal and policy matters related to terrorism. The tentative date for the Kuwait based event is 2009. Dr. Rawda Awwad, a professor at the American University of Kuwait, visited the Center for Terrorism Law on 12-13 December 2008 and met with Center for Terrorism Law research fellows and the Director to develop materials on the legal issues for the course.

5. The Center for Terrorism Law continues to coordinate cyber training initiatives with the Center for Infrastructure Assurance and Security (CIAS) at the University of Texas San Antonio.
