Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

March 2010

1. From March 18-19, 2010, approximately 150 people attended the Center for Terrorism Law two-day national legal conference entitled Cyber Security: Legal and Policy Issues for National Security, Law Enforcement, and Private Industry. The conference presented a unique opportunity for leaders in law enforcement, Department of Defense, Department of Homeland Security, and the business community to receive critical information on the full range of issues – legal and policy – related to cyber security.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law website www.stmarytx.edu has been updated with a number of media interviews to include a segment from a Canadian national TV show, The Verdict, where Professor Addicott debates the issue of military commissions and interrogation techniques.
3. As a participating member of the FBI's Terrorism Research and Analysis Project (TRAP), the Center for Terrorism Law has prepared an article for publication entitled: Radical Islam's Manipulation of the Media. The authors for the article are Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows, Nathaniel Fulmer and Robert Gunn.
4. The Center for Terrorism Law is preparing a law review article for the Southern New England School of Law regarding the need for international adoption of civil litigation tools to deter international terrorism.

5. Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows are in the process of reviewing and editing a book for publication regarding human rights issues.
6. Professor Addicott conducted the following media events and public speeches for the month of March:
