Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

May 2010

1. Professor Addicott published a chapter entitled: Cyberterrorism: Legal and Policy Issues, in Legal Issues in the Struggle Against Terror (John Norton Moore & Robert Turner, eds., 2010). The book was highlighted at a conference held at the National Press Club, Washington, DC (see speeches below).
2. As a participating member of the FBI's Terrorism Research and Analysis Project (TRAP), the Center for Terrorism Law has prepared an article for publication entitled: Radical Islam's Manipulation of the Media. The authors for the article are Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows, Nathaniel Fulmer and Robert Gunn.
3. The Center for Terrorism Law is preparing a law review article for the Southern New England School of Law entitled: American Punitive Damages and Promoting Enforcement in Democratic Nations of Civil Judgments to Deter State-Sponsors of Terrorism. The article explores the need for international adoption of civil litigation tools to deter international terrorism.
4. Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows are in the process of reviewing and editing an international book for publication regarding human rights issues and globalization.
5. Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows are in the process of writing the 6th Edition of the book, Terrorism Law: Materials, Cases, Comments (2011).
