Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

July 2010

1. The Center for Terrorism Law is coordinating with Texas A&M International University to develop an agenda for a national one-day conference on “Legal and Policy Issues on the International Border with Mexico” to be held on September 13, 2010 in Laredo, Texas.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law hosted a briefing by the San Antonio Cyber Consortium to the Senior Advisor for Intelligence and Cyber Operations, 24th Air Force.
3. As a participating member of the FBI’s Terrorism Research and Analysis Project (TRAP), the Center for Terrorism Law has prepared an article for publication entitled: Radical Islam’s Manipulation of the Media. The authors for the article are Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows, Nathaniel Fulmer and Robert Gunn. The article is at the publisher.
4. The Center for Terrorism Law is preparing a law review article for the Southern New England School of Law entitled: American Punitive Damages and Promoting Enforcement in Democratic Nations of Civil Judgments to Deter State-Sponsors of Terrorism. The article explores the need for international adoption of civil litigation tools to deter international terrorism.
5. Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows are in the process of reviewing and editing an international book for publication regarding human rights issues and globalization.
6. Professor Addicott and CTL research fellows are in the process of writing the 6th Edition of the book, Terrorism Law: Materials, Cases, Comments, 6th Edition (2011).
7. A media television clip from Kuwait TV has been posted on the Center for Terrorism Law website www.stmarytx.edu/ctl . The interview was given when Professor Addicott briefed the Kuwaiti Bar Association in a U.S. State Department funded visit to Kuwait in 2008. The issues discussed then remain as relevant today.

8. Professor Addicott conducted the following media events and public speeches for the month of July. The two MSNBC appearances for July 6 and 28 are posted to the Center's website www.stmarytx.edu/ctl:
