Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

May 2011

1. The Center for Terrorism Law will host an international conference to mark the tenth anniversary of 9/11. The conference will be held on September 8, 2011, at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas. The conference is entitled: The Tenth Anniversary of 9/11: Bush to Obama – Legal and Policy Issues in the War on Terror. Leading subject matter experts will present and debate the full realm of legal and policy issues that have emerged in the ten years of America's War on Terror to include: definitions of terms related to terrorism, unlawful enemy combatants, interrogation issues, civil litigation, domestic terrorism, the views of all three branch of government, cyber security, assassination, use of force, military commissions, bioterrorism, weapons of mass destruction, humanitarian intervention, and indefinite detention. The conference will be free and open to the public, but registration is requested. More information will follow.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law with the Ambivium Institute on Security and Cooperation, will co-host the 2nd Annual Conference on Terrorism and Global Security, September 14-15, 2011, at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Washington, D.C. The conference will focus on the 10th Anniversary of 9/11 and is entitled: The Ongoing Afghanistan War, the War on Terror, and from Clausewitz to Beyond - New Centers of Gravity.
3. The Center for Terrorism Law has prepared a chapter on interrogation issues for a book entitled: Contemporary Debates in Terrorism. The book will be published by Routledge Publishing Company and will be edited by Professor Richard Jackson (Aberystwyth University) and Samuel Justin Sinclair (Harvard University).
