Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

September 2011

1. The Center for Terrorism Law hosted an international conference to mark the tenth anniversary of 9/11. The conference, held on September 8, 2011, at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas, was open and free to the public. The conference was entitled: The Tenth Anniversary of 9/11: Bush to Obama – Legal and Policy Issues in the War on Terror. Approximately 120 people attended the conference where leading subject matter experts presented and debated the full realm of legal and policy issues that have emerged in the ten years of America's War on Terror.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law with the Ambivium Institute on Security and Cooperation, hosted the 2nd Annual Conference on Terrorism and Global Security, on September 14-15, 2011, at the Inter-American Defense Board, 2600 NW 16th Street, Washington, D.C. The conference focused on the 10th Anniversary of 9/11 and was entitled: The Ongoing Afghanistan War, the War on Terror, and from Clausewitz to Beyond - New Centers of Gravity. Leading subject matter experts provided detailed talks and written papers on a variety of topics. Approximately 50 people attended the two-day event.
3. The Center for Terrorism Law has prepared a chapter on interrogation issues for a book entitled: Contemporary Debates in Terrorism. The book will be published by Routledge Publishing Company and will be edited by Professor Richard Jackson (Aberystwyth University) and Samuel Justin Sinclair (Harvard University).
4. Professor Addicott is writing a new law review article on domestic terrorism. The extensive work will be finished sometime in the late 2011.
5. The Center for Terrorism Law semi-annual report will be published in October 2011 and sent out to the Center's listserv. Hard copies may be obtained from the Center for Terrorism Law.

6. Professor Addicott will speak on Cyber Security Issues at the Tort, Trial, and Insurance Practiced (TIPS) of the American Bar Association conference in Seattle, Washington on October 13, 2011.

7. The Center for Terrorism Law is a non-profit 501(c)(3). We operate entirely on private donations and public grants. All gifts are tax deductible. If you are interested in supporting the Center for Terrorism Law please contact jaddicott@stmarytx.edu.
