Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

October 2011

1. The International Association of Maritime Security Professionals (IAMSP) and the Center for Terrorism Law will co-host a two-day international conference that focuses exclusively on the full realm of legal and policy issues associated with acts of piracy against commercial vessels. The conference is entitled: International Piracy and Maritime Security: Legal and Policy Issues for Business and Government. Subject matter experts from legal, industry, government, and military will present detailed information to include: background of piracy; Somali piracy; civil suit liability; criminal liability; international maritime law; insurance coverage; use of force; terrorism; and training of security personnel and maritime employees. The conference will be held on 20-21 February 2012, at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas. For more information about this groundbreaking conference please contact: terrorismlaw@stmarytx.edu; or (210) 431-2219.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law has prepared a chapter on interrogation issues for a book entitled: Contemporary Debates in Terrorism. The book will be published by Routledge Publishing Company and will be edited by Professor Richard Jackson (Aberystwyth University) and Samuel Justin Sinclair (Harvard University).
3. Professor Addicott is writing a new law review article on domestic terrorism. The extensive work will be finished sometime in the late 2011.
4. The Center for Terrorism Law semi-annual report was published in October 2011 and sent out to the Center's listserv. Hard copies may be obtained from the Center for Terrorism Law or viewed on the Center website: www.stmarytx.edu/ctl.
5. The Center for Terrorism Law is a non-profit 501(c)(3). We operate entirely on private donations and public grants. All gifts are tax deductible. If you are interested in supporting the Center for Terrorism Law please contact jaddicott@stmarytx.edu.
