Center for Terrorism Law

Monthly Activity Report

January 2012

1. The proposed conference on International Piracy and Maritime Security: Legal and Policy Issues for Business and Government has been cancelled. We plan on holding the conference later in the year.
2. The Center for Terrorism Law will host Dr. Mohamad Chawki as part of our Distinguished Speaker Series on February 14th at 8:30 a.m. at St. Mary's University School of Law, in Law Classroom 101. Dr. Chawki will speak on cyber security and the current temperature in Egypt. This event is free and open to the public.
3. The Center for Terrorism Law will host a one day seminar to discuss two pressing issues in the continuing War on Terror. The seminar is entitled: Rules of Engagement and Veterans Support. Leading subject matter experts from legal, industry, government, and military will present detailed information on how self-imposed rules of engagement operate both in the realm of combat operations and new technology innovations. The case of Marine Lt. Joshua Waddell will serve to illustrate how overly restrictive rules can lead to injustice to our troops in the field.

In turn, the seminar will highlight myriad issues faced by our wounded warriors returning from combat. The seminar will be held on February 21, 2012, in Conference Room A at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas. The event is free and open to the public. For more information about this seminar please contact:

terrorismlaw@stmarytx.edu; or (210) 431-2219. The Center for Terrorism Law website will have the flyer for the seminar posted ASAP.

4. One of the primary missions of the Center for Terrorism Law is to assist our military members wrongfully accused of violations of law while acting in the course of their duties in combat. Currently, the Center is actively working with Marine Lt. Joshua Waddell (stationed in Afghanistan) to defend him against spurious accusations by his Company and Battalion Commanders that he committed violations of combat rules of engagement in the course of a combat operation. Lt. Waddell was relieved of his position as Executive Officer and given a career ending officer fitness report. The case has received national attention. See Washington Examiner newspaper article by Sara Carter dated January 24, 2012: Marine's Career Threatened by Controversial Rules of Engagement). The article can be read at: <http://washingtonexaminer.com/news/world/2012/01/marines-career-threatened-controversial-rules-engagement/2127401>.

The Center for Terrorism Law is assisting in a Congressional Inquiry by the office of Texas Senator John Cornyn as well as appealing the administrative actions through military channels.

5. The Center for Terrorism Law with the Ambivium Institute on Security and Cooperation, will co-host the 3rd Annual Conference on Terrorism and Global Security sometime in the Summer of 2012. Location: Washington, DC. More details to follow. The latest information is posted on the Center for Terrorism Law website.

6. The Center for Terrorism Law has prepared a chapter on interrogation issues for a book entitled: Contemporary Debates in Terrorism. The book will be published by Routledge Publishing Company and will be edited by Professor Richard Jackson (Aberystwyth University) and Samuel Justin Sinclair (Harvard University).

7. Professor Addicott is writing a new law review article on domestic terrorism. The extensive work will be finished sometime in the early 2012.

8. The Center for Terrorism Law is a non-profit 501(c)(3). We operate entirely on private donations and public grants. All gifts are tax deductible. If you are interested in supporting the Center for Terrorism Law please contact jaddicott@stmarytx.edu.
